Aid for Australian Strikers.
LONDON, Aug. 28.—The London Dock Laborers' Union has voted to subscribe a shilling a week for each member to the funds of the strikers in Australia. This is only a fair return for the financial aid extended by the Australians during the great struggle of the London dockers just as the telegram of "sympathy" sent by the union a few days ago to Mr. Powderly and the striking railroad men in New York, was an appropriate return for the sympathy unaccompanied by cash, which the Knights of Labor extended to the dockers on that same occasion.

LOTS OF HARMONY.

"Boss" Filley Running the Republican State Convention at Jefferson City.

Senator James C. McGinnis of St. Louis Made Temporary Chairman.

Every County in Missouri Represented in the Convention—Mr. Filley Makes One of His Characteristic Speeches and Arranges the Democracy—The Ticket Fixed by "de Ole Man"—Appointment of the Usual Committees and a Bess—The Colored Contingent Ask for Representation on the Ticket—The Thurman Club Wants Office-Holders Out of the State District Congressional Committee—Political Notes.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Aug. 28.—The capital of Democratic Missouri is to-day in the hands of the Republicans. They crowded the hotels, filled the streets and the State-house and declare they are having a good time of it. Filley and his strikers are running things, or at least pretend they are, and the understanding is "de ole man" has a ticket to run in on the Missouri Republicans. The delegates to the convention poured in from all over the State, and the hotels were soon crowded. St. Louis sent over 250, including the 123 delegates. Every county in the State, according to Secretary Beach's claim, sent delegates. Kansas City and St. Joseph are largely represented and the delegates from the former places arrived at 12 o'clock this morning and, from all accounts, had a "high old time" on the way down. They had, it is claimed, an almost inexhaustible supply of refreshments and in the words of one of their number "tore things wide open" on the train.

The "boss" in CHARGE.
The convention called to order shortly after 10 o'clock by Filley.

The delegates, alternates and spectators completely filled the House Chamber in the capitol building, and shouted and cheered at frequent intervals. As soon as the convention was opened a motion picture to have the delegates divided up into Congressional Districts and elect their officers. A recess was then taken until 11:30, when the session was resumed. Rev. Mr. Watkins offered a prayer and then "Boss Filley" made one of his characteristic speeches, in which he declared that the convention was a success and that the delegates were a fine body of men. He then made a long speech, in which he declared that the convention was a success and that the delegates were a fine body of men.

SENATOR JAMES C. MCGINNIS, temporary chairman, made a long speech, in which he declared that the convention was a success and that the delegates were a fine body of men. He then made a long speech, in which he declared that the convention was a success and that the delegates were a fine body of men.

First, Mr. Hart; second, Louis Bencke; third, H. E. Dyer; fourth, J. C. McGinnis; fifth, John Campbell; sixth, J. B. Upson; seventh, Judge Fogg; eighth, Arnold; ninth, H. E. Dyer; tenth, J. C. McGinnis; eleventh, John Campbell; twelfth, J. B. Upson; thirteenth, Judge Fogg; fourteenth, Arnold; fifteenth, H. E. Dyer; sixteenth, J. C. McGinnis; seventeenth, John Campbell; eighteenth, J. B. Upson; nineteenth, Judge Fogg; twentieth, Arnold.

It looked out of the very quiet meeting was held at "Boss" Filley's house on Chestnut street, Wednesday night to "fix" the ticket. Filley was the only one in the gathering and according to the account given by a Republican, who was present, he had Filley's opinion that the ticket should be fixed by the State Committee.

On the first ballot J. C. Henderson, editor of the Kansas City Star, was elected for two years. The ticket was then fixed by the State Committee. The ticket was then fixed by the State Committee.

The colored delegates form a big factor in the convention. There are quite a number of colored delegates present, and they are all well represented. The ticket was then fixed by the State Committee.

Some twenty-eight or thirty in number, met at the Indiana House at the call of D. H. Murray, who said there was no question that the program would be carried out without a break.

It was a long speech Mr. Murray said the negroes were entitled to representation in the State Committee and should demand it of the convention. He explained that the colored voters would be justified in asking a place on the ticket, but would waive that to demand other privileges. He said the Federal and other Republican officials who had patronized at their command had practically ignored the colored vote.

The Federal office-holders are fairly represented in the convention. The Federal office-holders are fairly represented in the convention. The Federal office-holders are fairly represented in the convention.

The delegates from the various Congress-sional districts will report the committee for the new State organization after the nomination is made. The first district will report C. H. Sampson and Harry Harmon; Ninth District, Channing C. Filley and Amos Cole; Tenth District, J. C. McGinnis and Kossuth Weber of Farmington.

GENERAL POLITICS.
State and Congressional Conventions—Joe Cannon Reassembled.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 28.—The Democratic State Convention was called to order at 10 o'clock this morning by Chairman Jewett of the State Committee, who immediately announced ex-Gov. Isaac Gray as chairman. Thirteen hundred and three delegates occupied seats on the floor while the lobbies and galleries were filled with a larger crowd. Democrats have been gathered together in the State for many years before. The platform, which is very long, was received with great enthusiasm. On National subjects it says:

"We, the Democracy of Indiana, in convention assembled, for the first time since the memorable contest of 1888, when we went down in defeat, but not dishonor, overcome by the shameless methods of Dudleyism and the 'Black-or-Five,' do solemnly declare: That the electoral vote of Indiana was obtained for Harrison and Morton by the most blatant crime against the ballot box, perpetrated in an American commonwealth; that these crimes were committed under the direct auspices of Wm. Wade Dudley, then and now Treasurer of the National Republican Committee, and by the procurement and connivance of Republican leaders in this State, who crowded the State-house, to the detriment of the State, and the administration of Benjamin Harrison, has made itself an accessory after the fact to these crimes by shielding the criminals from punishment and even by rewarding them for their knavery; and that the brazen prostitution of the machinery of the Federal Court for the District of Indiana, by its judge and attorney, to the detriment of the State, and the administration of Benjamin Harrison, has made itself an accessory after the fact to these crimes by shielding the criminals from punishment and even by rewarding them for their knavery; THE FIGURES ARE WRONG

THE CENSUS DEPARTMENT DOES ST. LOUIS ANOTHER INJUSTICE.

The statistics on street railroads do not truthfully show the improvement and increase of transportation facilities in this city—Mr. James Campbell furnishes the correct data—Real Estate News.

Real estate agents and property owners of this city are very much chagrined at the injustice which has been done to St. Louis in the statistical report which has just been sent out from Washington, D. C., by Charles H. Cooley, special agent for rapid transit facilities in cities, under direction of Henry C. Adams, special agent of transportation. The information furnished to street railroads and included in the suburban lines tributary to large cities but outside their corporate limits as well as those within the city, and in this matter St. Louis has been badly misrepresented as being among the cities which have made the least progress in developing the rapid transit problem—whereas the fact is this city is in advance of all others both in the increased number of mileage, the character of the tracks put down and in the elegant and modern equipment of its new systems.

No man is more thoroughly conversant with these facts than Mr. James Campbell, the broker, who has placed all the St. Louis street railway bonds which have been offered for sale to the public, with the exception of those of the Broadway line taken by the St. Louis Trust Co., and his energies in this behalf have necessitated an accumulation and the compilation of data which but few, if in fact any other person, possess. Mr. Campbell says that the St. Louis street railways are valued according to their capital stock, at $15,000,000, and not only that, but that this immense wealth all belongs to the city of St. Louis, the Chicago syndicate's purchase of some of the roads, amounting to $1,000,000, not excepted, as the money to pay for the bonds has all been borrowed from local banks and considerable more than the purchase price in the bargain.

The bonded indebtedness of the various roads, amounting to $9,450,000, is all held here. In referring to his statistical information about St. Louis street railways, Mr. Campbell finds that there is a total increase of 216.4 miles, there being a total increase of 62 miles since 1880.

During the year 1889 the lines then in existence carried 42,832,928 passengers. In 1889 there were 37,472,440 people carried on the St. Louis street railways. This is an increase of 10,366,488 passengers carried during the year 1889, over the number who rode on the street cars last year. This is a half as many more as were carried on the street cars last year, only five years ago.

Taking the figures in alphabetical order, the Benton-Bellefontaine line is credited with eight miles of track, which is changed to the overhead wire electric system.

The Forest Park & Fourth street road, located in the city, is now being changed to electric line, now a horse car line and constructed since 1880, is undergoing a change to electric motive power, the poles being in position.

The Lindell railway, thirty-five miles in length, has added 180 miles, now being changed to an overhead electric wire road, will be in operation in 1891.

The Missouri Railway Co., with eighteen and one-half miles of track, has added nine miles since 1880, and now has a franchise to change to the electric system.

The People's line on Fourth street, operated as a horse road since 1880, only eight miles in length, is now ten miles in extent and is operated from one end to the other as a cable road with much success.

The Southern Railway to Carondelet, seven and one-half miles long, is now being changed to a horse road, is now applying for a franchise to adopt the overhead electric system.

The Cass avenue road, eight and one-half miles in extent, is now being changed to a horse road, is now applying for a franchise to adopt the overhead electric system.

Morgan Ford road at $12 a foot to Charles S. Hasset of this city, who bought on speculation.

Startling Discovery.

The discovery by inhabitants of a locality hitherto unused by the pestilence scourge of fever and ague, that it exists in their very midst, is decidedly startling. Such discoveries are made at every season, in every part of the Union, especially when it is associated, as it invariably is at such times, through the valuable experience of someone who has been benefited and cured, that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is a thoroughly effective and reliable remedy.

FAMILIAR FACES.

Very few people now leaving the city and large numbers returning daily—society was preparing itself for the winter season. A social gossip gathered in social circles.

A WARRANT FOR GREEN.
An Officer Will Go to Vicksburg to Bring Murderer Back.

A warrant was issued at the Four Courts this morning charging Charles Green with murder in the first degree. Green is the young negro who, about four weeks ago, shot and almost instantly killed a companion named Henry Sehltz on the levee. The two quarrelled over a game of craps. Green capted but it is now learned that he is at work in Vicksburg, and an officer will probably be sent down to-morrow to bring him back in answer for the killing.
